MADISON INTERNATIONAL REALTY APPOINTS DR. STEFFEN MEINSHAUSEN AS HEAD OF GERMAN INVESTMENTS

New York, November 2, 2021 -- Madison International Realty, a leading real estate private equity firm, announced the appointment of Steffen Meinshausen, Ph.D. as Head of its German Investments Team. Meinshausen, 34, will be based in Madison's Frankfurt office.

Dr. Meinshausen's career spans more than a decade in real estate investment and private equity. He will work to build on Madison's investment strategy in the region and will lead the German team sourcing, underwriting and execution process across sectors including office, logistics, multifamily, life sciences and alternatives.

"We have seen significant activity in the German and European markets as Madison continues to leverage opportunities that fit with our investment strategy. We believe Steffen's appointment marks an indication of our ongoing ability to attract top professional talent to our platform to supplement the bench we currently maintain. We have built an exceptional team and believe that we are well positioned for the future," said Ronald Dickerman, Madison International Realty Founder and President.

Prior to joining Madison, Meinshausen served as Director of Investments at 777 Capital Partners, and previously was a Vice President at Corestate Capital Group. He has also held roles at Cerberus and Lazard based across the European continent. He holds a Doctor of Philosophy degree (Ph.D) in Corporate Finance from Technische Universität Darmstadt.

Madison International Realty focuses on capital partner replacements, equity monetizations and recapitalizations of class A properties and portfolios in major markets in the US, UK and Western Europe and functions as a liquidity solutions provider to real estate investors worldwide.
